

In 2007 Transition Habitat Directors Jill Bays and Roberta Dewey became Certified Land Stewards by the Mojave Desert Land Trust (MDLT) and have assisted in the development of baseline Conservation Easement documentation and reports on Joshua Tree National Park in-holdings purchased and monitored by MDLT. Certification includes photo point monitoring, GPS location, vertical mulching, invasive plant removal, and air quality monitoring for Joshua Tree National Park.